CAUSE NO. 12-1-07087-0 SEA

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY CASE SUMMARY AND REQUEST FOR BAIL AND/OR CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

The Certification for Determination of Probable Cause signed by Bellevue Police Detective Jennifer Robertson on December 28, 2012 under incident number 12-55702, is hereby incorporated by reference.

REQUEST FOR BAIL

The State requests bail in the amount of $5 million. The defendant's actions – shooting in a crowded bar that resulted in the death of one victim and substantial injuries to another – demonstrate that he presents an extreme danger to the community. The potential sentence for the crime with which he is currently charged (one count of Murder in the Second Degree with a firearm weapon enhancement) is 235-335 months in prison (approximately 20-28 years).

The defendant's criminal history includes a 2009 conviction for Manslaughter in the First Degree for the beating death of Edward 'Tuba Man' McMichael and Robbery in the Second Degree. In the present case, in addition to the murder of Deshawn Milliken, a second person was shot, suffering serious injuries, and a third person was possibly grazed by bullets fired by the defendant. As a result, in addition to the charge of Murder in the Second Degree, the defendant faces potential additional charges that would increase his sentencing range significantly. For all of these reasons, the defendant would have little incentive to appear for trial.

Apart from the murder of Deshawn Milliken and the defendant's significant criminal history, his actions on the night of the incident indicate a basic disregard for the law. At the time the defendant shot and killed Deshawn Milliken, he was in the Munchbar illegally (he is 19 years old) and in unlawful possession of a firearm (he is a convicted felon).

The defendant's actions since the murder of Deshawn Milliken also indicate that he is a flight risk and presents an extreme danger to the community. Immediately following the murder, the defendant was seen running out of the Munchbar, gun in hand, toward Bellevue Way in downtown Bellevue.

The defendant should also be ordered to have no contact with the family of the victims in this case or any of the witnesses.

Signed this 28th day of December, 2012.

CERTIFICATION FOR DETERMINATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE

That Jennifer Robertson is a(n) Police Officer with the Bellevue Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Bellevue Police Department Case Number 12-55702

There is probable cause to believe that Jamari Alexander Alan Jones (DOB: 02/16/93) committed the crime(s) Murder in the Second Degree in violation of RCW 9A. 32. 050

The following occurred in the City of Bellevue, county of King, State of Washington:

-My belief is based upon the following facts:

At approximately 1:09 a.m. on December 24, 2012, Bellevue Police officers responded to a 911 call of shots fired at the Munchbar restaurant/lounge, located at 505 Bellevue Square, Bellevue, King County WA 98004. Officers entered the Munchbar and found Deshawn E. Milliken (DOB: 11/28/82) on the floor, suffering from gunshot wounds. Medics responded, but Milliken was pronounced dead at the scene.

A short time after the shooting at the Munchbar was reported, Bellevue officers were flagged down by Michael J. Cheatham (DOB: 10/1/91) in the parking garage adjacent to the Munchbar. Cheatham was suffering from apparent gunshot wounds to his left hand and right forearm, and was bleeding heavily. He was transported to a nearby hospital.

Responding detectives soon learned of a possible third victim, Destiny J. Milliken, who was later seen at a hospital. Destiny J. Milliken appeared to have gun powder burns on her body and may possibly have been grazed by a bullet. Destiny J. Milliken identified herself as the sister of Deshawn Milliken.

Investigators have preliminarily determined that the Munchbar was extremely crowded at the time of the shooting and that at one point a fight broke out near the bar area. Witnesses reported hearing from four to six shots fired, after which patrons of the lounge began fleeing in panic.

1 Investigators were able to review video from the Bellevue Square parking garage outside
2 the entrance to the Munchbar lounge. On that video they were able to identify a black male –
3 subsequently identified as the defendant Jamari Jones, wearing a dark or black hat, distinctive
4 red down vest, and dark pants, waiting in line to enter the Munchbar immediately prior to the
5 shooting. They also identified Michael Cheatham wearing a black, hooded North Face Jacket,
6 apparently standing in line with the man in the red down vest outside the lounge.
7

8
9 Detectives also reviewed video from inside the Munchbar. Video of events at 10 approximately 1:05 a.m. showed a crowded scene, with the defendant, in the red vest, and
11 Cheatham clearly visible and talking with each other, in close proximity to Deshawn Milliken
12 and a then-unknown female (later preliminarily identified as Destiny J. Milliken). As the scene
13 progresses, Deshawn and Destiny Milliken appear to recognize the defendant and Cheatham, and 14 Deshawn Milliken tackles the defendant. Deshawn Milliken and an unknown male begin
15 fighting with the defendant, while Destiny Milliken appears to be fighting with Cheatham. After 16 approximately 8 seconds, Deshawn Milliken turns away from the defendant and is then tackled
17 around the waist by Cheatham. The video shows the defendant brandishing a pistol and pointing
18 it at Deshawn Milliken. The defendant can be seen firing at least one gunshot. Deshawn
19 Milliken and Cheatham fall to the ground and the defendant, still wearing the red vest, continues
20 pointing the gun toward them. Subsequent investigation has determined that at least five shots
21 were fired by the defendant. The crowd in the Munchbar then begins to flee the scene. Other
22 than the pistol in the defendant's hand, no other weapons or gunshots are seen.

25 Bellevue Square video outside the Munchbar picks up the crowd fleeing the shooting
26 inside. The defendant is clearly seen exiting the lounge with a gun in his right hand, fleeing to 27 the south. A few moments later, Cheatham is seen exiting the Munchbar and running north. A
28 separate video subsequently captured Cheatham removing his black North Face jacket. That 29 jacket was later recovered by Bellevue Police.
30

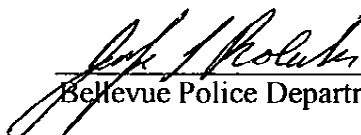

31 Investigators subsequently interviewed Cheatham in the hospital. He initially claimed
32 that he has arrived at the Munchbar alone and was standing near the bar when he heard gunshots.
33 He said that he was knocked down in the rush of the crowd and was shot in the left hand and 34 right forearm. He claimed to not know who shot him or how he was shot. Cheatham
35 subsequently admitted that he was at the Munchbar with a friend, the defendant Jamari
36 Alexander-Alan Jones (DOB: 2/16/93), but claimed that he and Jones became separated and 37 were not together when the shooting occurred.
38

40 Investigators were later able to further review available video and isolate images of both 41 Cheatham and the defendant. They also learned from one witness that during the course of the 42 fight Deshawn Milliken was knocked to the floor. The witness then saw the man in the red down
43 vest fire two shots at Milliken, pause, and then fire two more shots directly into Milliken.

45 Investigators returned to the hospital and interviewed family and friends of Cheatham,
46 who identified Cheatham wearing a black North Face jacket in the video images and identified
47 the defendant Jamari Jones as the man in the red down vest. Investigators then re-interviewed
48 Cheatham, who also identified himself in the photos and defendant Jamari Jones as the man in 49

1 the red down vest. Cheatham then refused to answer any further questions regarding the incident
2 or his knowledge of it.
3

4 Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing
5 is true this 28th Day of December 2012, at THE CITY OF BELLEVUE, King County,
6 Washington State.
